Friday 8:30AM- 2:00PM

Mission: To promote healthy aging by providing cost effective programs, classes, activities and services to citizen's 55 years and better. Adopted April 10, 2002

Director's Report

Summer is around the corner and so are lawn & garden care, trips north, vacations for staff, and the regular monthly activities. Please remember to neatly sign in or better yet PRINT your name when signing in. Legible handwriting helps the volunteer keep our records accurate. Thank you Dorothy Bichler for your monthly time on this important task!

The Center will be in transition for a new assistant this fall. Bonnie announced her plans to retire in September. Watch for information on a retirement party for her! Her commitment to the Center will be missed and thankfully she will remain a volunteer.

Congratulations to the new Board Members: Barb Bichler, Barb Hunsicker, Kathy McGuire, Barb Roob, & Dick Stoughton. These members begin 2-year terms at the June 13 meeting.

The Spring Fling had a wonderful turn out of over 100 participants! Thank you to the many volunteers of the Center for your time. Kudos to Bonnie for finalizing details while I was on vacation. The success of the Center is due to the team effort of the staff & volunteers.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

- Senior Games June 5-20
- Ozaukee Senior Conference June 14
- Book Talk & Library "A More Perfect Union" July 13

- Summer Picnic July 19

Movie – Music & Lyrics

Monday, June 25 at 12:30

Stars: Hugh Grant & Drew Barrymore

Plot Summary: Cheery Alex Fletcher lives comfortably in Manhattan off the residuals from his 80's pop success and reprising his hits at school reunions, theme parks, and state fairs. But those gigs are declining, so he jumps at the chance to write a song and record it with reigning teen idol Cora Corman. Trouble is, he's good at melodies but needs a lyricist and has less than a week to finish. Enter Sophie Fisher, subbing for a friend who waters Alex's plants; she's a pretty good poet, quick witted, and could do it, if she'd agree. NO Fee program.
