Mission: To promote healthy aging by providing cost effective programs, classes, activities and services to citizen's 55 years and better. Adopted April 10, 2002

Director's Report

Spring has finally come to Port! We look forward to the spring & summer routines of life. I am writing this with thoughts of Park & Recreation Director Jay Jansen. He came to be helpful in working with senior projects and professionally we will miss him.

The bocce court project is underway and the Request For Proposal for expansion is being completed with the City Engineer.

The Senior Citizens Center will celebrate 35 years at the May 31 Spring Fling. Please join the Center Staff, members, and volunteers at the event. The potluck dinner will be followed by volunteer recognition and entertainment from Crosstown Harmony, a women's barbershop group. See Special events for registration information.
