Friday 8:30AM- 2:00PM

Mission: To promote healthy aging by providing cost effective programs, classes, activities and services to citizen’s 55 years and better. Adopted April 10, 2002

Director’s Report

The Strategic Plan Committee for the Center will meet to make a recommendation on the expansion versus a new center. Please ask questions you may have of the staff or committee members (Sue Brunner, Ann Augustine, Harold Matthews, Clyde Weiland, & Dick Stoughton). The recommendation they make will go to the City Commission on Aging on June 9 for their review and input before being forwarded to the council. This is a chance for the present membership and community to prepare for the current and future space needs of senior citizens (and perhaps other ages in the community).

Congratulations to the new Board Members: Joy Hoard, Harold Johnson, Beverly Schleg. The other two positions will be filled by the Board from the ties in the write in vacancy.

Please remember to neatly sign in or better yet PRINT your name when signing in. Legible handwriting helps the volunteer keep our records accurate.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

- Senior Games May 28 – June 17
- Senior Conference June 12
- Bocce Ball June 3
- Firehouse Friends June 4
